

ROMANS

MMXVIII

Tom Shirk
November 11, 2018

Romans 16:1-24

"I appeal to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf."

Romans 15:30

LifeGroup or Further Study Questions

Read Romans 16:1-24

1. Why does Paul give Phoebe such praise and recommendation?
2. How do you think Paul knew so many people in Rome where he had never visited? (see Acts 18:2)
3. How does this list of names paint a picture of the diversity in the Roman church?
4. How does their diversity challenge/instruct/encourage us today?
5. Who are you currently helping to be a disciple of Jesus?
6. How can you personally grow in your own leadership?
7. In what ways are you investing into the multiplication of the church?

Spend time together striving in prayer for the work of the ministry in our community and world.

2018 MEMORY VERSES

Romans 1:16-17 | Romans 3:23 | Romans 5:1 |
Romans 5:6-8 | Romans 6:23 | Romans 8:1 | Romans 8:28
Romans 10:9-10 | Romans 12:1-2 | Romans 13:13-14